Aspiring Journalists Wanted For Kaimin Editorships

Clint Oster, chairman of Publications Committee, announced yesterday that applications are now being accepted for Kaimin associate editorships. Two or three associate editors will be chosen by the committee, Oster said. They will become eligible for consideration for the editorship when that office is filled in the spring.

Under the existing by-laws of the ASMSU constitution the editor must be chosen from people who have served as associate editor for at least one quarter. Those chosen now will be eligible.

Article VIII, section B, paragraph 1, clause b, of the by-laws sets the following qualifications for the office: "The associate editors shall have had two quarters experience on the Kaimin staff or one year's practical newspaper experience, and have attended Montana State University at least two quarters including the one in which they are selected."

Applications may be given to Ann Reese in the business office of the Student Union. They must be turned in by Monday, Jan. 28, 1946.

Fourth Estate Get-Together

Movies in technicolor will be featured at the first Press Club meeting of the year Thursday evening at 8.

The movies, provided by Ole Bue, were taken during the newspaper strike last summer at the New York Daily News, and should be of interest to all journalism majors.

A special invitation to all (old and new) journalists to attend has been extended by President Marjorie Cole, Great Falls.

Plans for the traditional Press Club banquet scheduled for this quarter will also be made at the meeting which will be held in the horseshoe room. Refreshments will be served.

"Four Make 'A' While Sun Shines"

One hundred and eight students wrote their names on the fall quarter honor roll with "B" average or better grades. Batting 3.00 and topping the list were straight-"A" scholars Molly C. Burke, Bremerton, Wash.; Modesta M. Booke, Dickinson, N. D.; Agnes A. Regan, Helena, and Alfred C. Sachs, Helena.

MSU's freshman class, which leads in total enrollment, placed 46 members on the high grade sheet. The sophomores numbered 19, juniors 32 and seniors nine. One special and one unclassified student also appear.

Missoula claims 17 of the honor students with Great Falls (8) next and Butte (6) following.

Moore, Hathaway Will Present "American Song"

On Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in Library 103, John Moore and Baxter Hathaway of the English department will present the 12th in their current series of poetry recitals.

The program for this recital will consist of a reading of "American Boy" by Paul Engle, an outstanding contemporary American poet who is now teaching at the School of Letters of the University of Iowa, his native state. Engle belongs to the group of modern poets who received their first inspiration from Walt Whitman and whose major efforts have been to define the spirit of the native American culture in their poetry.

An Appeal

Would it be good for the morals of this country to have fifteen-year-old children running naked in the street? That's what is happening in the Philippines today! They are not savages. They just don't have enough clothes to go around! Come on, write your folks to send you those outgrown summer clothes and curtains. My friends the Filipinos need them.

Contributions may be put in a box in the Student Union business office.

See Helen Elizabeth Donald for further information.

ATTENTION!

STUDENTS WHO SIGNED UP LAST QUARTER FOR RETAKES MAY SIGN UP FOR YOUR APPOINTMENTS NOW FOR THE REMAINDER OF THIS WEEK. SATURDAY NOON IS THE DEADLINE FOR ALL SENTINEL PICTURES, NEW OR OLD STUDENTS.

Ski Team To Enter Utah Meet

The MSU ski team, consisting of George Savage, Great Falls; Bob Manchester, Providence, R. I.; Harry Reinig, Helena, and Bob Downs, Helena, will leave Wednesday for Alta, Utah, to participate in the Rocky Mountain Intercollegiate Ski Meet Jan. 26 and 27.

All colleges in the Rocky Mountain Conference will send teams, as will several schools outside the conference.

The MSU team will enter both the downhill and slalom races, Savage said.

The team, sponsored by Minor Sports Board, is the first in several years to take part in intercollegiate competition.

Savage, who has done much to get the team organized this year, was state champion in 1941-42. Manchester and Reinig are former mountain troopers.

Hugh Edwards will accompany the team.

'Living Amber' Back at MSU Seeking Degree

Irene Gladstone '41, ex-actress of the legitimate stage, has returned to the university to take her master's degree in anthropology.

Miss Gladstone has played the lead in "Mysterious Lady" on Broadway for the past year, and has played in other major productions on the east coast. Walter Winchell, commentator, once reported, "Irene is the living Amber!" She has been considered for the lead in the movie, "Forever Amber."

Miss Gladstone, an auburn-haired, green-eyed young lady, looked far from the glamorous actress when interviewed, but rather like a typical coed. Her comment to the Kaimin reporter was, "Broadway is fine, but I feel it's time to come back to college again. I received by B.A. in music, then recently decided to take anthropology. It's wonderful to get back to the campus again, meet old friends and live in the house once more." (Miss Gladstone is a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta social sorority.)

"I hope," said Miss Gladstone, "to continue in anthropology after receiving my master's."

Kappa Alpha Theta Loses Close Contest

Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority ranked highest scholastically among MSU social sororities during fall quarter, and Sigma Chi was highest of the fraternities. Grade averages for the entire university and sororities and fraternities as a whole will be announced later.

Campus Men Are Mostly Veterans

Out of 750 men on MSU's campus 640 are vets.

"And more are coming in every day," Mrs. Emma Lommasson, vet's counselor, said recently.

Of these 488 are new students, 159 of them are former students, of this or some other school, who answered the call of duty or the draft board.

In addition to winter quarter's new men, 162 vets who went to school fall quarter have returned.

Statistics prove that 357 are ex-soldiers, 82 sailors, 45 marines and four coast guardsmen out of the 488.

There are 389 Montanans and 99 "furriners" in the bunch.

And 167 of them are the bane of the coed's existence—married men. Girls, there is still a man shortage.

Girls Escort Favorite Men To Coed Ball

MSU coeds will have a chance to slip into the role of escort Friday, Feb. 2, date of the formal Coed Sweetheart Ball. A traditional "girl asks boy" dance sponsored by the Associated Women Students, the party is being managed this year by Lois Sanders, Troy.

Special feature of the ball will be the crowning of a coed sweetheart. Candidates from all the sorority houses, the Co-op House, the Independents, North Hall, Corbin Hall and New Hall will be exhibited. Votes will be cast the night of the ball by the men present. Names of candidates will be announced in Friday's Kaimin.

Miss Sanders stated that coeds are not expected to take their dates to dinner.

Committees are: tickets and programs, Shirley Roehm, Great Falls, and Carol Haynes, Hamilton; music, Flora Sagen, Troy; decorations, Garnet Sethne, Glasgow, and Dorothy Angstman, Helena; floor show, Darlene Sylvester, Butte, and Jean Stamm, Dillon; advertising, Tannisse Brown, Missoula, and Pat Wendt, Kalispell; guests and chaperones, Norma Grasseschi, Black Eagle, and queen arrangements, Joan Kuka, Havre.

Ball Date Set

Barrister's Ball will be held Saturday night, March 9. The date was set at a recent meeting of the general committee in charge of this annual dance.

Newman Club mixer, Friday, Jan. 25, after the Gonzaga game in the Copper Room of the Student Union.

Score of the Kappa Kappa Gammass was an average grade index of 1.56, out of a possible maximum of 3.00. The Sigma Chi score was 1.21. Kappa Alpha Theta was second among the sororities with 1.55, and other sororities are Alpha Phi, 1.52; Delta Delta Delta, 1.38; Alpha Chi Omega, 1.318; Delta Gamma, 1.315, and Sigma Kappa, 1.31.

Other fraternities had scholastic scores of 1.16, Theta Chi; 1.08, Sigma Nu; 1.05, Phi Delta Theta, and .81, Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

WSSF to Drive MSU Campus

The Reverend Harvey Baty and a group of interested students are sponsoring a fund drive for the needy students of the war ravaged countries of the world in the near future.

Students in China, Belgium, Poland, all over this world, students not unlike the ones on this campus, are in need of food, medical attention, books and housing. The World Students Service Fund is trying to raise money for them. In the United States, on campuses all over the country, they are going to raise a million dollars for this purpose. MSU has a share of that million to raise.

"I hope you will all give as much as you can. I'm sure that the students will appreciate it, and I know that they need it," the Rev. Baty said.

Smarty Party By Flat Tops

An invitation, honored smarty, To this year's most exclusive party.

This verse, printed on minute replicas of Mortar Board's emblem, bids 40 coeds to Mortar Board's traditional "Smarty Party" Wednesday evening from 8 to 9:30 in the Bitterroot Room of the Student Union.

The ten girls from each class with the highest grades for fall quarter are honored annually in this way, June Saunders Burns, Troy, president of the senior women's honorary, reports.

Special guests will be Mrs. James A. McCain, Mrs. Mary Elrod Ferguson, and Mrs. Lucille Jameson Armsby, Miss Catherine White and Miss Anne Plat, Mortar Board advisers.

Janet Reinertson, Hot Springs, and Jean Livdahl, Malta, are in charge of entertainment and refreshments. They will be assisted by Joyce Phillips, Kalispell; Marilyn Hillstrand, Great Falls; Flora Mae Bellefleur, Creston; Ruth Olcott, Red Lodge; Mandi Luebben, Dillon, and Lois Pat Nelson, Missoula.

The editorial staff of the Montana Law Review held a meeting Monday afternoon in the law school.

Reply to a Letter

We quote from the minutes of the last Tuesday meeting of Central Board: "Jeffers read a letter from Marvin B. Porter of the Community Concert Association to the effect that there must be a greater degree of cooperation from the Kaimin if ASMSU wishes to have more than 500 seats in the future to the Community Concert programs."

By this Mr. Porter refers to our refusal to give large amounts of space (we call it free advertising) to the concerts when they appear here.

We recall that last spring a member of the Community Concert Association appeared at Central Board and asked that the student body relinquish 100 seats, thereby leaving the 500 we now have. The board did this with the understanding that the reduction would last for this year only.

Is Mr. Porter suggesting that we shall not recover our 100 seats which we relinquished in good faith to the Community Concert Association last spring when THEY were in difficulty?

Is he attempting by threats to determine the editorial policy of your paper, something even our paying advertisers have not yet attempted?

Our stand, on this and all similar issues, shall be to give news the play we think it deserves. We shall decide FOR OURSELVES what is news and what is not.

Good Job, Well Done

The committee appointed by President McCain to make a study of the tennis courts has recently concluded its investigation and submitted its report, a copy of which we have before us. While the contents of this report are still "off the record" we can assure you that serious thought and research was given to the tennis situation.

If the recommendations made by this committee are followed we shall have several batteries of first rate courts within the next few years.

We doff our hats to Pat Murphy, Mary Morrow and Prof. Jules Karlin for a job well done.

Signs of the Times?

Anyone entering Missoula on highway 10 is treated to a poor impression of MSU. About three miles out of town there is a sign announcing that Montana State University is located in Missoula. The sign directs people to the campus. It also leaves them with the impression that this is a shabby school indeed for the sign itself is one of the most unsightly we have run across in some time. It is in poor repair and in no way attractive.

We have been unable to determine who is responsible for its presence or for its poor upkeep. That is a job for university public relations. We suggest that it be torn down completely and in its place a new sign on the order of the state historic markers be erected.

It seems a small thing, a mere sign on the side of the road, but we feel that it is doing the university a good deal of harm.

If the university doesn't care to remove it we pass the suggestion on to the people who plan "hell night" in the various fraternities. It would make an excellent "mission."

Letters to The Editor...

January 18, 1946

Dear Mr. Brunett:

After having read your column, "Campus Tableau," this quarter and last, sometimes with amusement, others with disgust, I have, as perhaps many other students, reached the end of my endurance regarding some of your attempts to create reader interest. Your caustic and unsuited efforts in last Friday's issue of the Kaimin seem to me to have reached the low-ebb of absurdity. While your style of writing would probably give English professors a severe headache, I shall confine my comments to the text of your thoughtless dissertation. . . in the hope that you will enroll in a narrative class one of these days.

First of all, as a columnist, which entitles you to a byline, you are to be considered, as no doubt Bob Blair has instructed you, an authoritative critic in your particular field, whatever that may be. As such you should not only point out constructively matters that may need consideration, but also reflect the views of the student body that elected these representatives last spring.

When you refer to the delegates on Central Board as axe-grinders you are challenging and insulting the intelligence and integrity of the entire student body that elected them last spring. Surely our representation is not as bad as you would picture it. As I understand it you have attended but one-half of one Central Board meeting, which you seem to think entitles you to crack them asunder with acid comments regarding their ability as such a body. Further, it seems a pity that when faculty members come to such a meeting with honest and sincere efforts to produce an operetta for the enjoyment of the entire school you would feel justified to shame everyone from a monetary-anchor stand.

In addition your column does not coincide as to the pertinent facts of the meeting, unless the Kaimin reporter that covered it caused the wrong results to be published alongside your "filler."

Before you ran out of cigarettes and memorized something backwards you arrived at the conclusion that the Newman Club is "the Society for the Beterment of Javanese Hashish Adicts." I believe that you could have clarified what "Hashish Adicts" are, if anything.

The law student to which you made contemptuous reference is Professor Briggs, faculty representative on Central Board and not a law student. Mr. Briggs has, by the way, devoted much of his valuable time to Central Board for many years.

I agree that Central Board invites criticism—any organization from Congress to the neighborhood knitting club does. expose itself to this. In your case, however, don't feel that you should be classified with Westbrook Pegler, Frank Kent or David Lawrence, because these men occasionally come forth with something constructive. Criticism can be both constructive and destructive, and in your instance, fruitless. In your position as a school columnist you should not only be doing your school a service but you should also attempt to be a credit to the paper that you represent. I cannot see that you have filled the bill in either instance.

As you "trip" and "wander" around the campus hereafter you might try to learn more about Montana State University, its students, faculty and organizations, and perhaps get more unbiased viewpoints. Those who have attended school longer than you will probably take your work with a grain of salt—they've seen your kind come and go, sometimes leaving something worthwhile—but those who are new here, even newer than yourself, may wonder.

Regretfully,
Bob Seitz.

Jan. 22, 1946

Dear Robert Thornton Seitz:
Thank you for your kindly note. The publicity is mutual. Campus Tableau will appear every Friday on this page.
With undying friendship,
John F. Brunett.

Versus

BY ART CLOWES

Politicians have more darn' fun with words. I, like my friend Harris Hogan, am not a politician, but I like to play with words occasionally.

How about this word un-American. It is used excessively by politicians who want to convince constituents they have a five syllable word in their vocabularies. TVA and MVA are un-American. The New Deal, the OPA and the dog catcher's campaign speech are too. It is a good adjective to apply to anything unpalatable. I have a vague idea what American means, but this un-American business has me stumped.

To condemn everything not American is to condemn all English, German, Russian, Greek,

French, etc., to condemn their ways, ideas, institutions, etc.—in short to condemn about 99.44 per cent of all that exists or has existed.

I have two words that impart the same idea except that they are more exacting. Whachamacallit and gizmo. Whachamacallit is for the boys who like sixteen-cylinder words. I prefer gizmo—it is shorter and has a more positive sound. Whachamacallit is fairly well known. If TVA is whachamacallit, why I suppose those who oppose it are unwhachamacallit. And if the dog catcher condemns the traditional way of catching dogs (gizmo) then I suppose he is ungizmo.

Really, all the word un-American means is that he who applied it doesn't approve of what he applied it to. This is far less confusing: "For my own reasons (usually selfish) I think the TVA is bad." Or ungizmo.

I guess un-American means un-nationalistic. Unnationalistic is unpatriotic. Then an un-American act must be a treasonable one.

Personally I insist that the dog catcher's campaign speech was un-American. And inasmuch as un-American and ungizmo are synonyms, his speech was ungizmo. Now I beg you, Gizmo Jury, to condemn this man to a hanging because he has committed treason by being ungizmo.

Hapless Grizzlies Again Beaten by Cheney

Dahlbergers Stopped by Amazing Savage Speed 61 to 52, 57 to 26; Newcomer Schwend Leads Bruin Attack

Again it was disaster for the Grizzlies; the Eastern Washington College of Education dropped in too many and ran roughshod over the Montanans in a two-game series at Cheney last Friday and Saturday nights.

First Game

The first game was the best for Grizzly eyes. Beautiful floorwork by Jack McMaster kept the Grizzly continually threatening the scant Savage lead.

Cheney pulled away to a 33-to-19 lead at the end of the first half on a flurry of quick baskets and then Montana pulled up on the Savages, but not quite enough. The final count, Montana 52, Eastern Washington 61.

Don Schwend, Grizzly newcomer, grabbed scoring honors with 16 points. Cheney's Roffler hit 15, Leifer 14.

Second Game

The second game was murder. Cheney was never threatened. They won, 57 to 26.

Montana scored first but Gablehouse, Glendenning, Roffler and Leifer put on a show of speed that left the Grizzlies, period.

Schwend again hit the hoop for most Montana points, sinking 11. McMaster took the No. 2 scoring spit with eight.

The win gave Cheney a clean sweep of four games with Montana. They had previously beaten the Grizzlies 53 to 47 and 56 to 50 in Missoula.
